WHEN to call 911:

- When a crime is in progress (a prowler in your yard, a person seen breaking into a home or car, or a fight with or without weapons).

- When you smell smoke or see fire

- During a heart attack or other serious medical emergency

- Any situation requiring the immediate response of a fire truck, ambulance, or police.

- When life and/or property are in immediate danger.

Otherwise, call your local police non-emergency desk, city information or complaints department, hospital, or doctor’s office. Make a list of these numbers and keep them near your telephone.

When you call, you may be asked for this information:

- The location of the emergency
- Your name, address and telephone number you are calling from
- The nature of the emergency
